

GSIS Re-admission & Re-authorization of Thesis/Dissertation Submission for Spring 2024

1. Eligibility

1) Re-admission

- Students who dropped out or were expelled according to Graduate School Regulations.
- The restriction on the re-admission period has been lifted due to an amendment to school regulations. The dean of Ewha GSIS can recommend the re-admission of the applicant to the president of the university in case of vacancy in the appropriate degree program (either Master's or Doctoral Program) and GSIS as a whole by the year of re-admission semester. Re-admission is restricted to one time only.
- Depending on the expected semester to register on re-admission, application may not be available if there is no quota left. Please refer to each semester announcement for detailed information.

※ Ineligibility for Re-admission

- ① Students who failed to complete the necessary academic requirements (required coursework) during the maximum time given to obtain a degree
(Students who are granted readmission should complete all of the requirements for their degree within the designated period - 7 years for master's degrees and 11 years for doctoral degrees. This designated period includes the semesters during which students were enrolled in Ewha classes or had applied for a leave of absence. It does not include semesters during which students have completely dropped out of Ewha and removed their name from the registrar.)
- ② Students who entered another university
- ③ Students who were expelled for disciplinary reasons
- ④ Students who have already been granted readmission in the past
- ⑤ Students who were expelled for poor academic performance

2) Re-authorization of Thesis/Dissertation Submission Eligibility

- A student who has been unable to receive Master's/Doctoral degree due to the expiration of the thesis/dissertation submission period (The graduate student must receive an approval on her submitted thesis/dissertation within 7 years from entrance year for master's program or 11 years for doctoral program) but has passed the Thesis/dissertation submission eligibility exam (foreign language exam and comprehensive exam) can be given one more opportunity to apply for dissertation submission eligibility via application process. Students who completed coursework but did not conferred a degree due to other reasons such as disciplinary reasons are not able to apply for Re-authorization of Thesis/Dissertation Submission Eligibility.

- Those who have passed the foreign language exam include students who possess the score of official English-proficiency test which is higher than each department/major request.

* Available score of Re-authorization of Thesis/Dissertation Submission Eligibility for Spring 2024

: Score taken after March 1, 2022

- Students can only apply for Re-authorization of Thesis/Dissertation Submission Eligibility once as it is limited to only one time, regardless of whether the re-authorization is granted or not. When re-authorized to submit a thesis or dissertation, the student must submit the thesis/dissertation within 2 years for Master's program and 3 years for Doctoral program (this includes the semester in which she is re-granted the eligibility). Until the thesis/dissertation is approved, she must be enrolled as thesis/dissertation-based registration status.

-Those who are re-authorized to be eligible for submitting a thesis/dissertation should both pay a thesis/dissertation registration fee and register a Thesis/Dissertation Seminar course, until completing submission of a final thesis/dissertation.

※ Ineligibility for Re-authorization of Thesis/Dissertation Submission Eligibility

- ① Students who will get the permanent course completion status on February 2024
- ② Departments/majors that have stopped accepting new students and that do not have any remaining students are excluded from Re-authorization of Thesis/Dissertation Submission Eligibility. However, students of department of Korean Studies can apply for re-authorization of thesis/dissertation submission eligibility to Ewha Graduate School.
- ③ Students who applied for Re-authorization of Thesis/Dissertation Submission Eligibility in the past.
- ④ Students who were acknowledged as permanent completion due to disciplinary actions, etc.
