A man and a woman are shown from the chest up, looking at a computer screen. The man is on the left, wearing a green polo shirt, and the woman is on the right, wearing a white shirt with a Bloomberg lanyard. The background is a blurred office setting. Overlaid on the image are various financial data visualizations, including a line graph with red and blue lines on the left, and a table of financial data on the right. The Bloomberg logo is prominently displayed on the right side of the image.
